MUR 5911 )

CASE CLOSURE UNDER THE

RODRIGUEZ FOR CONGRESS )

ENFORCEMENT PRIORITY SYSTEM

SENSITIVE

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

Under the Enforcement Priority System, matters that are low-rated are forwarded to the Commission with a recommendation for dismissal. The Commission has determined that pursuing low-rated matters compared to other higher rated matters on the Enforcement docket warrants the exercise of its prosecutorial discretion to dismiss these cases.

The Office of General Counsel scored MUR 5911 as a low-rated matter. In this case, the complainant, B.J. Atkins, the Chairman of the 38th Assembly District Republican Central Committee of Newhall, California, alleged that during the 2006 Congressional race the Rodriguez for Congress Committee ("Committee") wrongly asserted eligibility to the increased contribution limits provided under 441a-1 and, thereafter, accepted contributions in excess of the limitations of the Federal Election Campaign Act. Specifically, after noting the amount of each contribution on its disclosure report, the Committee indicated that the "limit increased due to [the] opponent's spending." The complainant also identified seven contributors who gave excessive contributions to the Committee during the election cycle. The total amount of the alleged excessive contributions was $7,264.

1 The candidate, on behalf of the Committee, responded that the complainant merely
2 aggregated the numbers for both the primary and the general elections without regard as to
3 the specific dates of the contributions or their descriptions, as listed on the Committee's 4 disclosure reports.

5 An examination of the Committee's disclosure reports appear to support its 6 contention that the contributions identified by the complainant were appropriately designated
7 between the primary and general elections. Accordingly, in light of the de minimis amount
8 alleged in violation, and in furtherance of the Commission's priorities and resources, relative
9 to other matters pending on the Enforcement docket, the Office of General Counsel believes
10 that the Commission should exercise its prosecutorial discretion and dismiss the matter. See
11 Heckler v. Chaney, 470 U.S. 821 (1985).

12 RECOMMENDATION

13 The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission dismiss
14 MUR 5911, close the file effective two weeks from the date of the Commission vote, and 15 approve the appropriate letters. Closing the case as of this date will allow CELA and 16 General Law and Advice the necessary time to prepare the closing letters and the case file for 17 the public record.

6 Complainant: B.J. Atkins, Chairman of the 38th Assembly District Republican
7 Central Committee

9 Respondents: Rodriguez for Congress and
10 Noerena Limon, as Treasurer

13 Allegations: The complainant, B.J. Atkins, alleged that during the 2006 Congressional 14 race the Rodriguez for Congress Committee ("Committee") wrongly asserted eligibility 15 to the increased contribution limits provided under the millionaire's amendment and,
16 thereafter, accepted contributions in excess of the limitations. Specifically, after noting
17 the amount of each contribution on its disclosure report the Committee indicated that the 18 "limit increased due to [the] opponent's spending." The complainant also identified
19 seven contributors who gave excessive contributions to the Committee during the 20 election cycle. The total amount of the alleged excessive contributions was $7,264.
21

22 Response: On behalf of the Committee the candidate responded that the complainant
23 merely aggregated the numbers for both the primary and the general elections without 24 regard as to the specific dates of the contributions or their descriptions, as listed on the 25 Committee's disclosure reports. The candidate did not address the issue as to why the 26 Committee noted that it was accepting contributions at increased limits "due to 27 opponent's spending."
28

29 General Counsel's Note: The Committee was permitted to terminate on May 1, 2007, 30 which was seven calendar days after the complaint was filed. Additionally, an 31 examination of the Committee's disclosure reports appear to support its contention that 32 the contributions identified by the complainant were appropriately designated by the 33 Committee between the primary and general elections, notwithstanding the notation on 34 the disclosure reports that the Committee was accepting contributions at "increased 35 limits."
36

37 Date complaint filed: April 23, 2007
38

39 Response filed: September 20, 2007 [This Office spent several weeks contacting various 40 family members of the candidate in order to obtain a response, which was recently filed
41 via e-mail on September 20, 2007].
